1. The Central Committee of the Partido Socialista de Nicaragua (PSN), at a reunion held 6-7-8 September 1947, has agreed upon the following resolutions:
  - a. To establish a new weekly newspaper to be called Labor to replace the suppressed Unidad.
  - b. To continue efforts to contact General Somoza directly through Dr. Julio C. Quintana in an attempt to secure the return of confiscated printing equipment.
  - c. To comply with instructions not to enter into serious strikes until the people are sixty per cent organized.
2. In addition it was resolved to propose to Somoza full support of Dr. Roman in exchange for the following concessions:
  - a. Complete liberty of organization.
  - b. Complete authority for labor officials in order to ensure their effectiveness in accordance with present labor laws.
  - c. The return of all confiscated printing equipment.
  - d. Congress to take appropriate steps to grant legal status to the PSN, for which PSN would furnish the requisite number of signatures on a petition. If this last were not possible, they would accept a compromise embracing the first three points and postponing consideration of the fourth until another Congress was in power.
